Standards

While we promote loyalty to your church standards and respect the authority of each church and school to set standards, we request observance of the following minimum standards while in training:

- Women are encouraged to wear an appropriate veiling (1 Corinthians 11:1-16).
- Women shall wear dresses with modest (not low) necklines and skirts reaching well below the knees whether sitting or standing.
- Men shall be modestly dressed (with full-button shirts) and have short haircuts.
- All shall avoid outward ornamentation, such as jewelry and makeup.

Helpful things to bring along:

- Bible
- Small sticky notes
- Highlighter

These training sessions are not exclusive to Christian Light curriculum users. Instructors in any Christian school setting will benefit from this training course.
