There is Just One You

A long time ago, when sin came to Earth.
Our God had a plan, a wondrous birth.
To think that God sent, from heaven above,
Our Saviour and King, all wrapped up in love.

Chor.

There is just one you, not twenty, not ten, not two.
In all of the whole world through.
God only gave one you.

There's only but one, with sin not a trace,
That took up my shame, and died in my place.
Though Satan would try, to ruin God's plan,
You conquered the grave, and rose up again.

Chor.

There is just one you, not twenty, not ten, not two.
In all of the whole world through.
God only gave one you.
